The Clint Eastwood Crag

The Main Wall

For a Few Jugs More 5.8 Trad 55m Rap High Plains Driller 1 60m

The middle of the long white streaks on the main wall. Start below and slightly left of a small pine tree that sits on a ledge 20ft up. Diagonal up and right to the pine tree. At the tree head up and left following the crack. Follow the crack to its end and continue up discontinuous crack and face to the ledge. Look for the anchor on the left side of the ledge. Take some micro nuts and cams for the top.

High Plains Driller 10a 2p or 1 55m pitch Rap route

P1: Start as for “For a Few Jugs More” but at the pine tree continue up and right traversing over the roof following bolts to a small belay stance 5.9. 5 bolts plus a couple nuts for the start of FAFJM. Alternatively you can start on “Every which way but Loose” upping the grade to 11b and 8 bolts no gear.

P2: Continue up the left side of the arête to the ledge. 10 bolts. Great exposure! 10a

Every Which Way But Loose 11b sport

Start at the short hand crack left of “Hang Em High” and directly below the pine tree. Follow bolts through steep shallow corner. Continue up FAFJM or HPD. Can also lower from the chains on Hang Em High for a short but burly route.

FA Axel Reinhold Summer 2003

Hang Em High 5.11b 1 bolt, gear

Climb the obvious overhanging finger crack at the end of the approach trail. Lower or continue up FAFJM or HPD

FA Axel Reinhold Spring 2005

Unforgiven 11a Sport 18 bolts 55m Rap HPD 1 60m

The left streak. Start up the hill and left of FAFJM. Follow bolts to the ledge. Take your skinny rope and comfy edging shoes for this one!

FA Axel Reinhold Summer and Heather Sadler Summer 2003

Climbs off Dirty Harry Ledge

Around the corner to the left of Hang Em High is a short metal ladder leading up to a ledge. The Gauntlet and Pale Rider start here.

The Gauntlet 10c Sport 8 bolts

Follow the line of bolts straight up the steep shallow corner.

FA Axel Reinhold Summer 2003

Pale Rider 11c mixed Rap HPD

P1: Start on "The Gauntlet" and at the 4th bolt bust right and head up the steep face to a two bolt belay/rap anchor. 10d 8 bolts

P2: Continue up a harder than it looks finger and hand crack to a spacious ledge. Keep going up the corner crack until it runs out and race the pump past 2 bolts to a ramp. Left up the ramp puts you at the HPD belay. 11c 4 bolts and gear. The gear climbing is 10b.

The Good, The Bad and The Ugly Wall

This is the short steep wall at the right side of the cliff.

The Good (project)

The Bad 10d/11a? Short but pumpy!

FA Axel Reinhold Spring 2005

The Ugly (project)

Many thanks to everyone who helped and continues to help make the Clint wall what it is. Especially Jody Labonville, Juan Abbud, Casper and Chris and Rob(the adventurers). Special thanks to Sam D. who provided the pressure washer which we used to wreak havoc.

Hopefully you'll enjoy climbing here as much as we do. Please keep in mind that these routes have seen only 3 or 4 ascents to date. We had to remove a fair bit of loose rock from some of the routes and have made every effort to make sure the routes are safe. However, it's still rock climbing and there may be a loose hold somewhere that was missed.

That said we accept no responsibility for you hurting yourself. Thanks and Enjoy!

Axel and Heather.
